Admiralty-Office, November 15, 1799.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Nelson, K. B. Rear-Admiral of the Red, and Commanding Officer of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Palermo, 1st October 1799.

SIR,

I Have desired Commodore Trowbridge to send you, for the Information of their Lordships, Extracts of all his Letters to me, with the Terms entered into with the French for the Evacuation of the City of Rome and Civita Vecchia; on which Event I sincerely congratulate their Lordships, and am, Sir, with great Respect, &c.

NELSON.

SIR, Civita Vecchia, October 5, 1799.

I AM to request you will inform their Lordships, that I took Possession of Civita Vecchia, Corneto, and Tolfa, on the 29th and 30th Ultimo, with Two Hundred Marines and Seamen of the Culloden and Minotaur, and have already embarked and sent off near Three Thouſand of the Enemy; I now wait for Tranſports to get off the Remainder, which I ſuppoſe about Two Thouſand more.

General Bouchard takes Poſſeſſion of Rome at the ſame Time by the ſame Treaty; all public Property to be reſtored: their Lordſhips may rely on every Exertion on my Part to put the Capitulation in full Force, and truſt I ſhall ſucceed.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c.

T. TROWBRIDGE.

Evan Nepean, Eſquire.

SIR, Civita Vecchiâ, October 5, 1799.

IN Obedience to Orders from Lord Nelſon, I have the Honor to ſend you, for their Lordſhips' Information, a Copy of the Articles of Capitulation I have made with the French General Garnier, to clear the Roman State. As I knew the French had all the Valuables of the Roman State packed up ready for embarking, and the Coaſt at Civita Vecchiâ forming a deep Bay, with hard W.S.W. Gales and heavy Sea, which prevented the Blockade from being ſo cloſe as was neceſſary to prevent the Enemy from carrying off thoſe truly valuable Articles, I therefore thought it beſt to grant the liberal Terms I have, to get them out of this Country, where they have committed every Exceſs poſſible.

I truſt what I have done may meet their Lordſhips' Approbation.

I beg you to repreſent to their Lordſhips, that I received every Aſſiſtance from Captain Louis, who went to Rome and arranged the Evacuation, and taking Poſſeſſion of that Place, with General Bouchard, with great Ability and Exertion, and much to my Satisfaction.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

T. TROWBRIDGE.

Evan Nepean, Eſquire.

ARTICLES propoſed for the Convention between the General of Diviſion Garnier, Commander in Chief of the French Troops, and thoſe of Italy and other Allies now in the Roman Republic in a State of Siege; and Commodore Trowbridge, commanding His Britannic Majeſty's Squadron, lying off Civita Vecchiâ, on the Part of Great Britain and its Allies.

Art. I. Conſidering that neither the French Troops, nor the Troops of their Allies at Rome, Civita Vecchiâ, and Poſts within the Juriſdiction of thoſe Places, have been regularly beſieged by the Troops of his Sicilian Majeſty or thoſe of his Allies, his ſaid Majeſty conſents that the Troops of France and the Italian or Poloneſe Troops ſerving with them, as alſo all Perſons attached or belonging to thoſe Forces, together with their Wives and Children, ſhall quit the Roman Territory, in order to be ſent to France and to the Ports of Villa Franca or Antibes, on board Veſſels to be provided for that Purpoſe by the Commanding Officer of the Britiſh Forces; it is, however, to be underſtood, that the Officers, Troops, and other Perſons to be ſo embarked, ſhall be properly victualled by the Engliſh Government, during the Whole of their Voyage, and that the Expence attending ſuch Victualling ſhall hereafter be accounted for by the French Republic.

Anſwer.—Conſidering that Civita Vecchiâ, Corneto, Tolfa, and all the Roman State, under the Command of General Garnier, has not been regularly beſieged, but blockaded, I will grant to the Troops of the reſpective Garriſons to march out of the Places with all the Honors of War, to have their Muſkets, Swords, and Bayonets, and not to be conſidered as Priſoners of War on their being ſent to France or Corſica, as may be moſt convenient. The French General ſhall be allowed to take from the Public Stores at Rome, Proviſion for the March to Civita Vecchiâ.

Proper Proviſions ſhall be put on board for the Voyage, to be paid for by the Government of France hereafter.

Art. II. The Troops above mentioned ſhall aſſemble at Civita Vecchiâ within Eight Days after the Acceptance of the preſent Convention, and remain there under their own Guard, with the Honors of War, until the Arrival or Junction of the Tranſports in which they are to be embarked; and when the Number of Veſſels neceſſary for that Purpoſe ſhall be aſſembled, the ſaid Troops ſhall file off and embark accordingly, with Drums beating, Colours flying, a lighted Match, and Two Field Pieces, or Howitzers, with their Appurtenances; and be alſo allowed to carry away their Firelocks, Bayonets, Side Arms, and Cartouch Boxes, together wich all the Effects belonging to each Individual of the ſaid Troops, who ſhall moreover not be conſidered as Priſoners of War.

Anſwer.—The Tranſports are ready—St. Angelo and its Dependencies under General Garnier's Orders on the other Side Tolfa, to be delivered to the regular Troops under Marſhal Bourcard.

The French Garriſon ſhall march out with the Honors of War, Drums beating, Colours flying, in Forty-eight Hours after the Capitulation is ſigned; but no Field Pieces or Howitzers allowed; only Muſkets, Bayonets, Swords, and Cartouch Boxes, and not to be conſidered as Priſoners of War.

Art. III. Twenty-four Hours after the preſent Convention ſhall have been ſigned and accept d, a Detachment of Four Hundred Men ſhall land from His Britannic Majeſty's Ships; One Hundred of whom to be ſtationed at Civita Vecchiâ, and afterwards to occupy the Horn Work at the Roman Gate, conjointly with a like Number of French Troops; the remaining Three Hundred to march to Rome, accompanied by a French Detachment; and on their Arrival at that City, to be put in Poſſeſſion of the Gate of Cavallegiere, and the Hoſpitals; at which two Places an equal Number of French Troops ſhall alſo be ſtationed, until the complete Evacuation of Rome.

Anſwer.—Civita Vecchiâ and Corne to be put in Poſſeſſion of the Britiſh Troops as ſoon as poſſible after the ſigning theſe Articles as a Courier can come from Rome; and the Garriſon to be embarked and ſent to France.

General Bourcard will have Directions to give a ſufficient Guard of regular Troops to eſcort the Garriſons of Rome and its Dependencies.

Art. IV. The Sick belonging to the French and their Allies, not in a Condition to be removed, ſhall be allowed to remain at Rome and Civita Vecchiâ, and be conſidered as under the immediate Protection of His Britannic Majeſty and his Allies, ſubject, however, to the domeſtic Superintendance of a French Commiſſary, and be treated and taken care of as heretofore, by their uſual Medical Attendants, &c. who ſhall be permitted to continue with them at the two Places abovementioned.

Whatever Expence may attend the Victualling of the ſaid Sick, ſhall be reimburſed to the proper Perſons by the French Republic: and on the Recovery of the Sick they ſhall be conveyed by Sea to the neareſt Port of France, together with the Medical and other Perſons who may have attended them in the Hoſpitals, and whoſe Preſence at Rome or Civita Vecchiâ may be no longer neceſſary, after the Whole of the Sick ſhall be recovered.

Anſwer.—The Sick belonging to the French Garriſons ſnall be aſſiſted by their proper Surgeons, at the Expence of the French Republic, and ſhall be ſent to France when they are well

Art. V. With a View to the due Execution of the preceding Article, an Aſſiſtant ſhall be appointed to the Commiſſary of War at Rome, for the Purpoſe of enforcing the French Regulations in the different Hoſpitals, and ſeeing that the Sick are treated according thereto; and he ſhall correſpond, as far as relates to theſe Particulars, with the Commanding Officer of the Engliſh Troops, and their Allies, who may happen to be at Rome or Civita Vecchiâ. The French General ſhall nominate an Officer to take Charge of the Depôt which may be formed at Civita Vecchiâ for the Convaleſcents, according as they ſhall be diſcharged from the Hoſpitals.

Anſwer.—The General may leave ſuch Aſſiſtants to the Sick as he may think neceſſary.

Art. VI. The French Troops and their Allies, leaving Rome for Civita Vecchiâ, ſhall be provided with the neceſſary Conveyances for their Baggage, as alſo with a ſufficient Number of Boats for the removal of the Sick, who may be judged by the Medical People to be in a Condition to be ſent to the laſt-mentioned Place. The like Means of Conveyance for the ſeveral Public Accomptants, whether of the Troops or Civil Adminiſtrations, ſuch as Civil Commiſſion, National Treaſury, Civil and Military Appointments, &c. &c. ſhall be alſo provided by the Officer commanding the Engliſh Troops, and their Allies, who ſhall have entered the City of Rome in conformity to the Third Article of their Convention; and he, the ſaid Commanding Officer, will have regard to the Requiſitions which ſhall be made to him by the Commiſſary of War entruſted with the chief Management of this Service relating to the Diviſion of the French Army.

Anſwer.—General Bourcard will furniſh Carts, Boats, &c. for the Accommodation of the French Garriſon of St. Angelo and its Dependencies, and the Baggage that may belong to it. Eſpecial Care ſhall be taken to convey ſuch Sick and Wounded Soldiers as may be in a State to be removed, to Civita Vecchiâ. In caſe Waggons, &c. cannot be procured immediately, they ſhall be ſent by the firſt Opportunity to France.

Art. VII. The French Troops and their Allies ſhall proceed to Civita Vecchiâ in the Courſe of Two Days, according to ſtated Marches: they ſhall ſet out on the firſt Day for Monteroni, and on the ſecond proceed to their Deſtination: they ſhall be ſupplied from the Store-Houſes at Rome with the Supplies neceſſary for their Subſiſtence during their March; and the Officer commanding the Engliſh Troops, and their Allies, ſhall provide the Means of conveying thoſe Supplies.

Anſwer.—Anſwered before.

Art. VIII. All private Property, whether moveable or otherwiſe, belonging to the French or their Allies in the Roman Territory, ſhall be reſpected, and remain at the Diſpoſal of themſelves or their Agents.

Anſwer.—Private Property never moleſted.

Art. IX. All Deſcription of Property, as well as Objects of Art, belonging to the French Republic, throughout the whole Extent of the Roman Republic, ſhall be alſo reſpected; and the French Nation have Liberty to leave One or more Perſons at Rome for the Purpoſe of arranging and preſerving the ſeveral Articles, until the French Government ſhall take ſuch Meaſures relative to this Matter as may appear moſt conſiſtent with the National Intereſts.

Anſwer.—Public Property was never before demanded in the long Courſe of Service I have ſeen; of courſe, wholly inadmiſſible.—Public Property muſt be given up.

Art. X. The Cavalry Corps belonging to the French and their Allies ſhall be allowed to return to France by Land, taking their Horſes with them, as alſo their Arms and Baggage: they ſhall be eſcorted by a Detachment of Fifty mounted Auſtrian Troops, or their Allies, as far as the Advanced Poſts of the neareſt French Army. All French Officers, or the Officers of the Allies of France, who ſhall be deſirous of following the above-mentioned Cavalry Corps, with their Horſes, Servants, Carriages, and Baggage, ſhall be at Liberty to do ſo, and the neceſſary Lodgings, Proviſions, and Forage for this little Column during its Journey be provided by means of the Interpoſition and good Offices of Commodore Trowbridge, with the Perſons in Authority belonging to thoſe Governments, through whoſe Territories the Troops may paſs.

Anſwer.—Cavalry Horſes, being Public Property, muſt be delivered up. The Remainder of the Article inadmiſſible.

Art. XI. An Officer of Artillery ſhall be appointed by each Party to draw up a Report of the Ordnance and other Military Stores and Ammunition remaining in the Garriſons of the Caſtle of St. Angelo, Civita Vecchiâ, Corneto, and the ſurrounding Towers; and an Officer of Experience ſhall alſo be appointed on each Side to make a Report as to the actual State of the above Fortreſſes with a View to their Surrender, and likewiſe that of the Plans and Charts in their Dependency.

Anſwer.—Agreed.

Art. XII. Such Citizens of Rome and other Perſons as ſhall now form, or may have heretofore formed a Part of the Conſtituted Authorities of the Roman Republic; and thoſe alſo who ſhall have ſerved the Republican Cauſe, by their patriotic Works, or taken up Arms for that Purpoſe, ſhall be at Liberty to depart with the French Troops, and on the ſame Terms as they do, or remain in the Roman Territory, free from all Kind of Moleſtation, on account of their political Opinions or Avocations, during the Time they ſhall have exerciſed either their Civil or Military Functions.

Anſwer.—As long as the Romans conduct themſelves with Propriety, and are obedient to the Laws, they will not be moleſted. Such Romans as chuſe to embark with the Garriſons, have my full Leave; taking with them their private Property.

Art. XIII. Commodore Trowbridge, on the Part of His Britannic Majeſty and his Allies, engages on the good Faith of the Engliſh, that no Individuals within the Roman Territory ſhall be incommoded or perſecuted on account of their Opinions; that their Perſons and Property ſhall be alike reſpected; and that they ſhall moreover be at all Times allowed the neceſſary Paſſports to enable them to leave the Roman Territory, with entire Liberty to make ſuch Tranſfer or Diſpoſition of their Property as they may think fit.

Anſwer.—Anſwered before.

Art. XIV. Any Neutral Veſſels which may be in the Port of Civita Vecchia, ſhall be allowed to be employed as Tranſports for the Conveyance of the Troops, and be afterwards permitted to return to their former Employments; and Veſſels belonging to the Republics of France and Rome, which may alſo be at the Port abovementioned, ſhall be employed in like Manner, and not held ſubject to Confiſcation as Prizes.

Anſwer.—Proper Tranſports are provided.

Art. XV. Two Covered Veſſels (that is Veſſels not ſubject to Examination) ſhall be allowed, and choſen from amongſt thoſe abovementioned, belonging to the French and Roman Republic.

Anſwer.—Inadmiſſible.

Art XVI. The Store-Houſes of Civita Vecchiâ ſhall remain in the Poſſeſſion of the French, until the Troops ſhall be on the Point of embarking; and the French General allowed to take therefrom the Supplies neceſſary for the Diviſion, paſſing his Word that he will not ſuffer any Waſte, nor permit more to be taken away than the Army may require.

Anſwer.—As long as the Garriſon remains, the Store-Houſes may be kept, but no more of any Species of Proviſions to be iſſued than the uſual Allowance.

Art. XVII. The French Ambaſſador to the Roman Republic ſhall enjoy in the moſt ample Manner the Privileges attaching to his Character, according to the Rights of Nations, and be at Liberty to leave Rome, and return to France either by Land or Water, taking with him whatever Number of Carriages he may judge neceſſary for his own perſonal Accommodation, and the Convenience of the Perſons attached to the Embaſſy, as well as for the Conveyance of their Effects and the Diplomatic Papers. Should the Ambaſſador prefer a Conveyance by Sea, he ſhall, together with his Effects and thoſe of the Perſons in his Suite, and the Archives of the Embaſſy, be conveyed on board an Engliſh Ship to ſome of the Ports of Villa Franca, Antibes, or Toulon. In this Article are underſtood to be comprehended the Secretary of Embaſſy, the Secretaries, and other Perſons attached to the Embaſſy, and People compoſing the Suite of the Ambaſſador. The Members of the Civil Commiſſion from the French Republic reſiding at Rome; their Agents, and Perſons attached to ſuch Commiſſion, ſhall alſo be underſtood as coming within the Deſcription of Perſons comprehended in this Article; and they (the ſaid Members) ſhall be at Liberty to take away with them the Papers appertaining to their Commiſſion, together with their own perſonal Effects, and thoſe of the other Perſons belonging to the ſaid Commiſſion.

Anſwer.—A proper Engliſh Veſſel is ready for the Reception of the Ambaſſador and his Suite, to carry him to France, with the Baggage.

Public Papers, belonging to the Roman State, to be delivered to General Bourcard.

No Public Papers to be taken away which in any Shape are belonging to the Roman State.

The Agents to be ſent to France by Sea.

Art. XVIII. The Town of Ancona, being under a ſeparate Command, ſhall not be underſtood as comprehended in the preſent Convention.

Anſwer.—The Places to be given up are underſtood to be thoſe under the Command of General Garnier; Ancona is excepted.

Art. XIX. The Articles of the preſent Convention ſhall not be conſtrued as affecting or tending in any Reſpect to prejudice the Sovereign Rights or Independence of the Roman Republic.

Anſwer.—Not underſtood.

Art. XX. In caſe of any Difficulty ariſing with reſpect to the Interpretation of the Articles of this Convention, ſuch Articles ſhall be explained in Favour of the French and their Allies.

Anſwer.—Agreed.

ADDITIONAL ARTICLES to the Convention made between the General of Diviſion Garnier, Commander in the Roman Republic in a State of Siege, and Commodore Trowbridge, Commander of His Britannic Majeſty's Forces before Civita Vecchiâ.

Art. I. His Britannic Majeſty's Troops ſhall take Poſſeſſion of the Fort and Town of Civita Vecchiâ, the 7th Vendemaire (29th September), in the Afternoon. The French Troops of the Garriſon will remain in the Barracks, as it will be mentioned hereafter; they will be allowed at the Gate of the Barracks a Guard of Honor of their own Nation.

The Britiſh Troops ſhall take Poſſeſſion of Corneto the 8th Vendemaire (30th September) in the Morning; the French Troops at Corneto will be at Civita Vecchiâ the ſame Day, to be placed in the Barracks as above. His Sicilian Majeſty's Troops ſhall take Poſſeſſion of Rome and of Fort St. Angelo the 8th Vendemaire, (30th September) two Hours after Midnight, in a ſufficient Number, and ſhall be placed according to the Diſpoſitions that may be propoſed by General Garnier to General Bourcard, ſo as to aſſure the Tranquillity of the Town, and protect the Evacuation of the French. The French ſhall begin to evacuate Rome the 8th Vendemaire (30th September); a ſecond Column ſhall march out the next Day, and the third, which will be the laſt, ſhall ſet out the Day after.

They ſhall alſo repair to Monteroni the Day of their Departure, and the Day ſucceeding they will arrive at Civita Vecchiâ.

They will take with them in the Route Two Field Pieces and One Howitzer, which they will deliver to the Britiſh Commodore as ſoon as they arrive at Civita Vecchiâ.

Agreed.

Art. II. General Garnier, or for him the French Commandant of the City of Rome, agreeably with General Bourcard, ſhall continue to give the French and the Romans, at the Suit of the Army, public Orders to regulate their Evacuation, until the Departure of the laſt French Column.—Agreed.

Art. III. The 9th Vendemaire, (or the 1ſt of October,) the French Troops in the Barracks of Civita Vecchiâ ſhall be ſo embarked, that their Barracks may be occupied by the firſt Column coming from Rome, arriving the ſame Evening at Civita Vecchiâ. This Column ſhall be embarked the next Day to give Room in the Evening to the ſecond Column. This ſhall embark the 11th Vendemaire (4th October) to make way to the third Column, which ſhall embark the Day after their Arrival.

The Sick ſhall be embarked the laſt; and the moſt commodious Veſſels ſhall be kept for them.—Agreed.

On board the Culloden, the 5th Vendemaire, and Eighth Republic (or 27th September 1799).

Copy of a Letter from Captain John Talbot, Commander of His Majeſty's Ship Eurydice, to Evan Nepean, Eſq; dated the 12th Inſtant.

SIR,

I Have the Honor to acquaint you, for the Information of the Right Honorable the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, that I ſailed from hence at One o'Clock A. M. on Sunday the 10th Inſtant, and was forced to return this Day, from the Badneſs of the Weather. At Nine the ſame Morning I ſailed, Beechy Head N.W. by N. Three Leagues a Schooner was ſeen from us cloſe to a Brig. On ſeeing the Eurydice the Schooner ſtood to the S. W. and the Brig hove to and hoiſted his Enſign Union downward, I hauled up and ſpoke her; ſhe told me that ſhe had been attacked by the Schooner, and that One of her Men was very badly wounded. I ſent a Boat with the Surgeon on board, and made ſail after the Privateer. At Eleven ſaw His Majeſty's Sloop Snake on our Lee Bow, ſeeing us, ſhe hauled up and joined in the Chace. At Three o'Clock the Privateer finding that the Eurydice was nearly within Gunſhot, and coming up with her very faſt, bore up, and attempted to croſs the Snake, which ſhe was not able to effect, from the good Management of Captain Lewis; ſhe then lowered her Sails and was taken Poſſeſſion of by him. The Privateer proved to be L'Hirondelle mounting Fourteen Three and Four Pounders, Fifty Men, and commanded by Pierre Merie Dugerdin, belonging to Calais, from whence ſhe ſailed on Saturday Morning, had taken nothing this Cruize. One of the Crew I found to be an Engliſhman, and have confined him till their Lordſhips' Pleaſure is made known to me. I am ſorry to add, that the Surgeon has been obliged to take off the Arm of the Man that was wounded in the Brig; he is now on board of the Eurydice, and hope from the Skill and great Attention of Mr. Pardie, the Surgeon, that he will do well. The Brig is called the Diana, of Sunderland, bound to Portſmouth, laden with Coals. Great Credit is due to the Maſter and Crew for the Reſiſtance they made to ſo ſuperior a Force.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

JOHN TALBOT.
